EXPERIENCE

[CodSoft] ⬈   June 2025 - July 2025
Role - Web Development Intern   Remote
- Between June and July 2025, I worked as a Web Developer at CodSoft , where I focused on building clean, responsive UI designs using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React , MongoDB And Node.js. This experience sharpened my skills in modern web development and gave me a solid understanding of delivering production ready Web applications.

[Skyscanner] ⬈   1st June 2025 - 13th June 2025
Role - Front-End Software Engineering Intern   Remote
- Completed a job simulation led by Skyscanner, focusing on practical front-end development tasks using React and Backpack design system.Built a functional and responsive Backpack React web application with key components like calendar integration and user interaction workflows.Gained hands-on experience with component-based UI design and front-end development best practices in a professional-like setting.

[British Airways] ⬈   May 2024 - June 2025
Role - Data Science Intern   Remote
- Over the past year, I had the opportunity to dive into real-world data challenges through the Data Science Job Simulation by Forage. From May 2024 to June 2025, I worked on practical tasks like modeling lounge eligibility and predicting customer buying behavior—projects that pushed me to think critically, apply data-driven techniques, and understand business impact. This hands-on experience helped me refine my approach to problem-solving and strengthened my confidence in applying data science to real business scenarios.
